Gaeilge/ Cultúr

Scoláireachtaí Gaeltachta 2010

Ba mhaith liom gach dea-ghuá a ghabháil leis na scoláirí go léir ón ár gClubanna a bhí / atá / a bheidh ag dul go dtí an Ghaeltacht ar scoláireacht ó Chumann Lúthchleas Gael. Seo seans iontach chun Gaeilge a labhairt, bualadh le cairde nua, scileanna ár gcluichí a chleachtadh, ár gceol a bhlaiseadh agus atmaisféar na Gaeltachta a ghlacadh. Bainigí tairfe agus taitneamh as.

Oifigigh Cultúr / Gaeilge

Diaidh ar ndiaidh tá na hainmneacha ag teacht isteach. Tá mé an-bhuíoch díbh. Mar sin, le bhur dtoil, leanaigí leis an dea-iarracht.

Coiste Oilúna Puc Fada Final – A Close Encounter!

There was a very close final in the Cork U16 Puc Fada, held in Glen Rovers last week with John Walsh (Glen Rovers) emerging as a worthy winner over Robert Foster (Carrigaline). Following the first round of shots, the Glen Rovers man took the lead and in the next two efforts managed to hold off the opposition to claim the victory. The winner of the Senior competition was Seamus Coffey (UCC) and both will now go forward to represent Cork at the Munster Finals which will be held in Thurles on the eve of the Munster Hurling Final. Best of luck lads!

Carbery/ Beara Games News Divisional U17 Camps

Cork minor selector Andrew McCarthy recently ran a training session for Beara clubs in Adrigole, while on previous weekends, Niall Cahalane, Gene O'Driscoll and Donal McGrath took sessions for East Carbery in Rossmore and West Carbery in Skibbereen, respectively. Many thanks all involved, especially Tim Buckley.

Cork Sports Partnership Blitzes

This programme will be expanded in September to incorporate more schools and clubs, as will club-school coaching links. For more information, contact local GDA Kevin O'Donovan, 086-7753567

Cork Minor Hurling

The Cork Minor Hurlers played out a thrilling draw with Waterford in their semi-final in Páirc Uí Chaoimh on June 26th, finishing on a scoreline of 0-24 to 2-18 after extra time. The replay will take place on Wednesday July 7th at 7.30pm in Walsh Park, Waterford – for team information, see www.gaacork.ie. Best of luck to John Considine (below) and all his players and backroom staff.

Celebrity Bainisteoir – Fermoy and Franc!

It has been confirmed that Fermoy GAA Club will feature in the next series of RTE's Celebrity Bainisteoir. Locally-based Peter Kelly, better known as Franc of Weddings by Franc, will take on the challenge of guiding Fermoy through the series, which will be aired later in the year.

The first Quarter-final against Ballymun Kickhams will be played in on 31st July at Fitzgerald Park, Fermoy. Home advantage was achieved by winning a Physical Challenge and Tug of War at the Army Obstacle course at the Curragh.

The match will be televised with commentary by RTE's supremo, Micheál O'Muircheartaigh. This match represents a repeat of the 1906 All Ireland final when, Fermoy (again representing Cork) lost to Kickhams by a single point, 0-6 to 0-5.
