Leagues Report

More games must be played if we are to complete the League programme by the cut-off date of October 10th. Since the last Progress Report, only 37 games have been played, leaving 171 games outstanding out of 561. 17 games per week are required to meet the deadline, so clubs are urged to make the effort to meet this target.

Munster Intermediate Hurling Final

In yet another meeting with the Déise, Cork play Waterford in the Munster Intermediate Hurling Final at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan on Thursday July 22nd at 7.30pm. Cork have an impressive history at this level, with 12 Munster titles and 7 All-Irelands, more than any other county, and they will hope to add to that tally this year (See History section of www.gaacork.ie for Rolls of Honour, teams and results). Good luck to all involved.

The team for Thursday's final can be seen on www.gaacork.ie

Paths to the Final:

Cork 1-18 Tipperary 1-12 (Quarter-Final)

Cork 1-24 Limerick 3-17 (Semi-Final)

Waterford 1-13 Clare 0-13 (Semi-Final)

Cork Intermediate Management: L-R Fintan Coleman (Blarney), Pat O Connell (Delany's), Pat Kenneally (Newcestown), Ger O'Halloran (Ballinhassig), Michael Holland (Fr. O'Neill's)
