1921

Almost no G.A.A activity occurred this year in Cork because of the continuing troubles as Martial Law was in force for most of the year. By the time the truce was confirmed it was too late to begin anything.

Cork had beaten Limerick in the delayed 1920 Munster final, Limerick then lodged an objection to B.Considine of the Cork team as he had played previously with Clare. In order to prevent trouble or a split so soon after the civil war, the Munster Council agreed to let Cork and Limerick play for the final of the 1921 Munster final.
