Cork Launch of Kellogg's Cúl Camps 2013

With the hope of fine weather Coiste Oilíúna (Cork GAA Coaching and Games Committee) are pleased to announce details of the Kellogg's GAA Cúl Camps for 2013 in Cork.

Over 95 camps will be taking place around the county commencing on July 1st and finishing on August 23rd. In 2012, 9,600 children attended Kellogg's GAA Cúl Camps which indicates just how popular the camps are among the youth population between the ages of 6 and 13.

Speaking at the launch, Cork Coordinator, Noel Crowley outlined the nature of the camps: "Kellogg's GAA Cúl Camps provide boys and girls - between the ages of 6 and 13 - with an action-packed and fun-filled week of activity during the summer holidays which revolves around maximising enjoyment, building friendships and sustaining participant involvement in Gaelic Games. Children come to the Kellogg's GAA Cúl camps to have fun, to enhance their skills and make new friends."

Cian O'Donoghue and Sean Murphy, Under 10s with Bishopstown GAA, are looking forward to this year's Kellogg's Cool Camp, which will be held at numerous venues around the County.

Cork Senior Hurlers and Footballers, Patrick Horgan, Anthony Nash, Patrick Cronin, Cathal Naughton, Ken O'Halloran and Donncha O'Connor, helped launch the Camps at CIT recently.

At the camps they are supervised and coached by teams of highly trained and qualified GAA personnel, who have many years of experience in organising and running GAA Cúl Camps.

It is no wonder that the Kellogg's GAA Cúl Camps are the most popular summer camps selected annually by Irish parents. Cork GAA Coaching Officer, Brendan Driscoll commented, "GAA Cúl Camps are in the second year of a very successful sponsorship by Kellogg's. This sponsorship has already produced beneficial results for both the GAA and Kellogg's and Cork GAA looks forward to working with Kellogg's to make the Cúl Camps even more successful this year and in future years. Get Your Name in the Game is a hugely successful promotional concept that has caught the imagination of children the length and breadth of the country, with the result that in 2012, Cúl Camps attendances increased significantly." One of the highlights of any camp will be the visit of inter county players. This will be a key feature of the camps again in 2013. Noel Crowley points out " a number of inter county players are currently being lined up to visit camps for photos, autographs and give some coaching tips to children."

To register for the camps, simply log on to www.kelloggsculcamps.gaa.ie for details of all the camps around the county. Remember there are discount vouchers available on all Kellogg's Corn Flakes and Kellogg's Rice Krispies promotional boxes available in stores nationwide. You have no excuse now if you don't "Get Your Name in the Game".

County Poc Fada Finals

Congratulations to Seamus Coffey (UCC), who won the County Poc Fada Competition held recently at Pilmore Strand. Seamus now goes on to represent Cork at the Munster Poc Fada. Well done also to Declan Dalton (Fr. O'Neill's), who won the U16 competition.

Next Issue

The next issue of County Board News will be published on June 18th. Please forward this newsletter to all your contacts.

County Board Report

At the County Board Meeting of June 4th, Munster Council Vice-Chairman, Jerry O'Sullivan, and Operations Manager, Kieran Leddy, outlined the various ticket discount packages available for upcoming Munster Council fixtures, details of which will be posted on www.gaacork.ie in due course.

Delegates were informed that Minor and U21 Football management would be on the agenda for the next Board meeting, as both managers have completed their two-year terms. Fixtures were discussed, and an amended list will be sent to all clubs and posted on the website as soon as possible. The next meeting will take place on June 18th.

County Championships

First round games have now been completed in all County Hurling and Football championships, and the full line-up for Round 2 can be found in the Competitions section of the Cork GAA website, www.gaacork.ie, where you'll also find the full list of all fixtures and results.
