Reports

Valleys Under 16 hurlers

Valleys under 16 hurlers had a good win over Inniscarra last Monday night with a score of 4.12 to 1.7. The league win puts Valleys on top of the table however the biggest challenge is yet to come against the Championship favourites. We wish all involve best of luck in preparation for this

Under 8s hurling blitz

Valley Rovers under 8s played in a very enjoyable hurling blitz at St Finbarrs grounds on Saturday June 30th. This was a major event, with 52 teams taking part, including two from Valley Rovers. One of our teams played matches against Carrigaline, Clondrohid and Midleton, while the other team played hosts St Finbarrs as well as Carrigaline and Douglas. A total of 22 Valley Rovers players took part in the blitz. One of the highlights was the participation by two boys from Belarus – Roman and Vandia – who wore the Rovers jerseys and it was great to see them enjoying the occasion. The next big event for the under 8s will be a football blitz in Dunmanway on July 15th and we look forward to another enjoyable day out.

Best of luck to Alan Quirke and the other members of the Cork Senior football backroom staff from Valley Rovers in the Munster Football final next Sunday in Limerick versus Clare
