Minor Hurling championship

Killeagh/St Ita's overcame Valley Rovers in a thrilling Rebel Og Premier 2 Minor hurling championship clash played before a large attendance on a score of 1-15 to Valley Rovers 0-16. Both sides were full of energy from the throw in but with Killeagh committing silly fouls the pinpoint striking of Jason Crowley punished them at will. Valleys led 0-6 to 0-5 in the 20th minute when Killeagh were awarded a penalty but despite Dan Landers striking it well the Valley Rovers keeper David Lynch parried it to safety. With Crowley's tally increasing to six points at the break his side deservedly led 0-9 to 0-5 and looked in control. Killeagh after hitting two points in the opening four minutes got the perfect start and when substitute Eoghan Keniry drilled in a superb goal a minute later they were back on level terms. Killeagh then struck over points from frees that any Senior hurler would be proud of, they gradually began taking control. Sadly for Jack Murphy he could have won the game late for Valley Rovers but Colin Walsh produced a save from the top drawer that denied him a certain goal. A magnificent point in the final minute from Killeagh sealed a victory for the east Cork side but both teams should be complimented for the wonderful hurling they produced over the hour.

U13 County Semi Final

On a very wet Thurs night last our U13 hurling met Lisgould in the East Semi-final emerging victorious on a score of 2.06 to 0.07. The home team quickly stormed into a two point lead before the Rovers turned the game on its head with an excellent tap in goal from Matthew Crowley following a superb shot from Daniel Kenneally. Quickly followed by a second goal from Adam Healy who following a great solo run shot to the corner of the net. Two more points from Charlie Lyons one from play and a free saw us lead at the break by 2.02 to 0.03 .Great defence from goalkeeper Ciaran Rice, full back Sean Lynch and centre back Mark O'Leary kept our goal intact.

The second half began with a flurry of points from Adam Healy (2) and Daniel Kenneally (1) before Lisgould completely took over. In the next fifteen mins they scored four points without reply and had several goal chances cleared but with corner backs Alan Hoey and Shane Lynch to the fore Valleys held out. The final ten minutes saw Olan Fehilly, Peter Callanan, Cathal Manning, Johnny Muckian and the tireless Ronan Hoey and Paul Ryan all up their game and Charlie Lyons rounded off our scoring with a free in the dying minutes. A brilliant display of grit and determination from this gallant young team in atrocious conditions. Valleys now play Russell Rovers in the final. Team

Congratulations

Congratulations to Tessa Crowley who was a member of the Cork Senior Camogie panel who qualified for the All Ireland Final last Saturday, by defeating Galway, in the semi-final at Nolan Park, Kilkenny.

Also congratulations are extended to her uncle, Aidan Crowley of Valley Rovers GAA who was a selector with this panel.

Best of Luck to Alan Quirke and the other Valley Rovers members who will be involved with the Cork Senior Footballers who take on Donegal in the All Ireland Senior Football semi Final next Sunday in Croke Park.

The Leader board for Valley Rovers Sports Prediction Fantasy League 2012 has been updated after the first eighteen completed events. Ireland record medal haul in the Olympics has resulted in anyone with other receiving 9 points. Our long time leader is still out in front but his lead has been cut to two points.
