Bride Rovers Juvenile Hurling & football Club aims to promote Hurling & football in our community and is fully committed to the physical, social and personal development of all our members. It is our policy to encourage active participation by all players and members in the club, and to help them achieve their potential in a structured, safe and disciplined environment. The overall aim of the club is to create a community spirit for the benefit of all, through committing the Juvenile club to excellence both on and off the playing fields.

Introduction

The primary objective of this document is to define in a concise and comprehensive fashion the Club's policies relating to conduct of its member's. It is important that all members of Juvenile club familiarise themselves with the contents of this document. We continually set ourselves high standards for the betterment of the club and for these to be achieved it is vital that everyone involved in the various capacities within the club adhere to these policies and guidelines.

Hurling & Football and young people

Hurling & Football, like all sports, provides an excellent pathway for children and young people to learn new skills, become more confident and maximize their own potential. Through their participation, they can learn and develop life skills, have fun and enjoyment, make friends and experience life in a way that can enhance their personal growth throughout their lives.

People become involved in sport for young people for a variety of different reasons. They come from a variety of sporting backgrounds and take on various roles within clubs and other sporting organizations. Yet irrespective of their role or responsibility, they all share the common goal of providing sporting opportunities for young people.

Parents, coaches, mentors and administrators all have an important role to play in promoting good practice in children's sport. They should have, as their first priority, the children's safety and enjoyment of the sport.

Bride Rover Juvenile club, like the GAA, wants Hurling & football to be safe, we want it to be fun and wants to ensure that no matter what level of the game young people are involved in, that it takes place in the spirit of 'FAIR PLAY'. – FUN, TRAIN, PLAY, RESPECT.

Fair play is the guiding principle of the Irish Sport's Council's Code of Ethics as well as the GAA's Code of Ethics and Good Practice programme which is designed to provide guidance for those working with young people in sport. It outlines the type of issues that need to be discussed and addressed to provide the safest and most enjoyable environment not only for young people but also the coaches and volunteers involved.

BRIDE ROVERS JUVENILE GAA - CODE OF CONDUCT

Focusing on individual participants' needs encourages young people to achieve and demonstrate enjoyment, equality and fair play. Through this they will come to realise that standards of behavior are equally as important as sports performance.

In taking this approach children are encouraged to:

- Do their best – put in their best effort.
- Improve and develop their skills.
- Make friends.
- Play by the rules.
- Appreciate/accept everyone in the group, regardless of ability, race, religion, gender etc.

Code of Conduct Policy Statement

Bride Rovers Juvenile Club is fully committed to safeguarding the well-being of all its underage members. We encourage 'best practice' in the coaching and playing of our games, and we are committed to providing an environment and ethos which will at all times show respect and understanding for member's rights, safety and welfare.

The achievement of 'best practice' is dependent on:

- Mentors, coaches, parents and club members setting a good example through their own behaviour at training and matches.
- The development of skill and well-being through the playing, coaching and promotion of our games
- The adoption of the principles of fair play and good behaviour at all times.
