

New England Rugby Football Union

(NERFU)

Team Travel Policy

The following NERFU policy describes the steps necessary that the NERFU Secretary must follow when he/she receives a team travel request.

Domestic Team Travel:

- NERFU approvals are not required.
- A NERFU approval letter may be created if the host Union requires it.

Traveling Abroad:

- Team must fill out the travel abroad USA Rugby application that includes itinerary plus dates of departure and return, the clubs the team plans to play while on tour, dates of the matches as well list of all players traveling, with their current CIPP numbers.
- Team must notify the NERFU secretary of their team travel intentions
- NERFU Secretary notifies the appropriate Executive Director of the team request
- NERFU Secretary submits a letter of approval once USA Rugby approves their application

Teams visiting NERFU

- Team submits the RFU permission to tour in New England to the USA RFU and the NERFU Secretary.
- Once the USA RFU provides approval then NERFU Secretary contacts appropriate NERFU Executive Director to confirm tour approval
- NERFU Secretary submits letter of approval to the visiting team
