25th July 2014

The All-Ireland Intermediate Hurling Semi-Final takes place this Saturday 26th July Cork v Galway in Tullamore @ 2.30pm. Inniscarra has two players involved John O Callaghan (Captain) & Colm Casey, we also have one selector Jerry Linehan. We wish them the very best of Luck on Saturday.

This is followed by the two Football All Ireland Senior Championship R4 Qualifiers Cork v Sligo @5pm & Galway v Tipperary @7pm.

Good Win for Minor Footballers

In the Rebel Og Central 3 u-18 Football Championship at Ballyanly on Tuesday evening Inniscarra defeated Bishopstown by 5 - 9 to 2 - 10.

Inniscarra opened the scoring with a point from Robert O'Callaghan. Bishopstown equalised but points from Cillian Geaney and David O'Carroll put Inniscarra ahead again before Bishopstown replied with two more points. In the seventeenth minute a free kick from David O'Carroll found Craig Barrett who passed to Altan O'Connell who scored a good goal. Two minutes later another goal followed from Cillian Geaney. A great save from goalkeeper James Walsh before half-time and good defending from James Roche, Patrick O'Sullivan and Killian Horgan kept Inniscarra in front. A line ball for Bishopstown was intercepted by Danny Herlihy who powered up field to set up Robert O'Callaghan for another point. A further point was scored by Cillian Geaney just before half-time to leave the score at half-time. INNISCARRA 2 - 5, BISHOPSTOWN 0 - 7.

Bishopstown got the first point of the second half before Cillian Geaney scored two brilliant goals - the first after a pass from Robert O'Callaghan and the second after a good move involving David O'Carroll Craig Bennett and Robert O'Callaghan. (Continues across page)
