Monster Blitz U8 Hurling

Inniscarra was one of seven centres in Cork which hosted the National Dairy Council backed Monster Go Games Blitz Programme last Saturday morning. Fourteen teams decked out in their club colours arrived at Ballyanly full of anticipation. Inniscarra were represented by four teams of seven a-side and each team did their club proud. The other clubs present were Eire Og, Blarney, Aghabullogue, Dripsey, Grenagh, Donoughmore and Laochra Og. Each team played three games. Inniscarra Team 1 played Donoughmore, Laochra Og and Grenagh. Team: David Enright, George McSweeney, Colm Herlihy, Reece Murray, Sean Mulcahy, Mark Breen, Michael Osbourne. Team 2 played Blarney, Eire Og and Aghabullogue Team: Conor Gould, Senan Brislane, Daniel Murray, James O'Mahony, Diarmuid Murphy, Liam Hayes, Kieran Keohane. Team 3 played Blarney, Eire Og and Aghabullogue Team: Cathal Lyons, Jack Shine, Conor Costelloe, Ben Fletcher, Darragh O'Donoghue, Rory O'Donoghue, Joey O'Donoghue Team 4 played Grenagh, Dripsey and Laochra Og. Team: Alan Heelan, Shane Maher, Jack O'Mahony, Darragh O'Shea, Sean Og Holland, Donagh Holland, Dylan Donovan. Well done to all the under 8 boys who played on the day and to their parents thanks for the support. Also well done to Sean Holland and his team for a well organised blitz.

U10s trip to Glenflesk

The U10 football team travelled to Glenflesk last Saturday for a challenge match with the Kerry Club. 30 players gathered in Ballyanly in their Cork colours for a bus departure at 9am. We arrived at Glenflesk's very impressive new grounds at 10.30 and were welcomed by the former Kerry great Seamus Moynihan. We played two 10-a-side games, both teams played very well with two very evenly contested games. All players got plenty game time and demonstrated their skills following recent outings versus Kilmurray and Rebel Og blitzes in Macroom and Kilmichael. All players were presented with goodie bags by Seamus after the game and Seamus encouraged the kids to continue playing sport and practice at home. The team then departed for McDonalds in Killarney for lunch and returned to Cork in good spirits with excellent renditions of "Frozen" musical songs at the back of the bus. Thanks to Denis Lynch for organising the trip and to the parents for travelling and supporting the team on the day. The teams were as follows - Ciaran Desmond, Liam Leisk, Tadhg Lyons, Tadhg O'Keeffe, Callum Larkin, Ciaran Gould, Conor Geoghan, Michael Murphy, Matthew Harris, Niall Hamill, Stephen Landers, Daragh Fleming, Luc Mellouin, Sean Linehan, Jack Keegan, Michael Lehane, Luke Kenneally, Daniel Murphy, Ryan O'Connell, Sean Connolly, Luke Walsh, Cian Lennane, Odhran Lynch, Jack Desmond, Donal Dineen, Jack O'Callaghan, Tom Coughlan, Daragh McCarthy, Joe Hayes, Leo Lucey. We have invited Glenflesk back to Inniscarra for a return fixture and a demonstration on the game of hurling later in the summer.

May Cork GAA Clubs' Draw

Congratulations to Seamus Cronin who won a holiday to Dubai in this month's Cork GAA draw.
