HISTORY

DICK BARRETT EXECUTED 94 YEARS AGO; ON THE 8TH OF DECEMBER 1922

Dick Barrett was born in 1889 in Hollyhill, near Ballineen. He qualified as a schoolteacher and he got a teaching post in Gurrane National School, where he later became principal. It was during his time here that he became a player and honorary secretary of Knockavilla GAA Club. Later Knockavilla GAA club in the north of the parish joined with the club in the south of the Parish to form what we now know as Valley Rovers. He was a member of the IRB and fought on the anti-Treaty side in the Civil War. Having saved Sean Hales life in 1920, Dick Barrett was executed on the 8th of December, 1922, in reprisal for Sean Hales Death. Dick Barrett Cup -The current U21 A Hurling cup was presented to Cork County Board by the Dick Barrett Memorial Committee in 1974 and is given to the winners of the Cork County U21 A Hurling Competition.
