U16's

Sunday 23rd Valley Rovers U16 Hurlers travelled to Newtownshandrum to play the semi-final of the league. Valleys were slow to get in to the game and trailed at halftime by 3 points. We battle gamely in the second half but could not get the goal we needed and eventually lost by five points 2:12 to 0:13. We were missing a few players through injury and sickness but the lads performed admirably and certainly made our hosts work hard for their win. Team:

Cormac Lyons,

Cormac Kilduff, Gearoid Sweetnam, Matt Crowley,
Shane Lynch, Mark O Leary, Dave Muckian,
Adam Kenneally, Sean Barry,
Niall Lawton, Kieran Rice, Arron O Leary,
Darragh Keane, Cathal O Sullivan, Ronan Hoey.

Subs used: Brian Hoey, Misko Savic, MI Connolly, Conor Tahenny.

Thurs 27th the u16 footballers travelled to Clonakilty to play Illen Rovers in the quarter final of the football league. We started very well and went in to an early lead with points from Ronan Hoey and Shane Lynch, a goal and a point from Daniel Lordan, two points each from Niall Lawton and Sean Barry, Illen finished the half strongly scoring two good goals and three points leaving Valleys leading by one point at half time 1-07 to 2-03.

Illen continued their good form at the start of the second half scoring five points to go in to a four point lead. Some positional changes and the introduction of our substitutions gave Valleys a fresh impetus, a goal from Misko Savic great points from Ronan Hoey, Darragh Keane, Adam Kenneally (2), Niall Lawton (2) saw Valleys finish the game strongly to win by four points 2:13 to 2:09.

This was a very good game of football and our lads showed great strength and hearth to win after falling four points down after 15 minutes of the second half.

The backs held firm with Kieran Rice, Matt Crowley and Shane Lynch leading the way at the back ably assisted by Jack Crowley, Dave Muckian, Mark O Leary, Cathal O Sullivan and Cormac Lyons in goal , working tirelessly around the middle of the field were Adam Kenneally, Sean Barry, Niall Lawton, and Ronan O Connell.

Up front Ronan Hoey, Misko Savic, Daniel Lordan and Darragh Keane all chipped in with good scores and they were superbly supported by the hard working Matt Devine, Brian Hoey and Cian Crowley.

This was a very good performance against a good Illen Rovers outfit, well done to all. Team:
