Cork Senior Hurlers in Munster Final!!

Cork will play Limerick on July 13th in a repeat of the 2013 Munster Final, but hoping for a different result!!

The Rebels met Waterford in this year's Quarter-Final, and while it took a replay to separate the sides, Cork blitzed Clare on June 15th in Thurles to reach the final on a scoreline of 2-23 to 2-18, both goals coming from the stick of Patrick Horgan.

For a full report on the game. see www.gaacork.ie.

Tickets for the Munster Final will be available online at gaa.tickets.ie, at selected Centra/SuperValu stores and through clubs. All information will be posted on www.gaacork.ie as available.

Upcoming Inter-County Action

There's a busy time ahead on the inter-county scene! The Cork Senior Footballers open their championships campaign on Saturday night against Tipperary at 7pm in Páirc Uí Rinn, preceded by the Junior game between Cork and Limerick at 5pm. With tickets just €15 and U16s free, we're hoping for good support for the Rebels! Should they reach the Munster Final, it's a date with either Kerry or Clare on July 6th.

On Wednesday June 25th, the Cork Intermediate hurlers will play Tipperary in the Munster Final at 7.30pm in Páirc Uí Rinn, following their win over Clare in the semi-final on Sunday.

Finally, the Cork Minors play Limerick in the Munster Semi-Final on Thursday, July 26th at 7.30pm in the Gaelic Grounds, Limerick.

Further information on all fixtures will be posted on www.gaacork.ie
Nothing beats being there!!!

Kelloggs GAA Cúl Camps Launched!

With the hope of fine weather Coiste Oilíúna (Cork GAA Coaching and Games Committee) are pleased to announce details of the Kelloggs GAA Cúl Camps for 2014 in Cork. Over 95 camps will be taking place around the county commencing on July 1st and finishing on August 23rd. In 2013, 9,400 children attended Kelloggs GAA Cúl Camps which indicates just how popular the camps are among the youth population between the ages of 6 and 13. For more information and to book a place, see www.kelloggsculcamps.gaa.ie
