

Club Description:

The men's New London County Rugby Football Club (NLCRFC) is in search of a qualified coach for the 2018 spring and future seasons. NLCRFC is a 501(c)(3) not-for profit rugby organization located in southeastern Connecticut. This competitive rugby organization currently competes in the New England Rugby Football Union Men's Division III which is overseen by USA Rugby. Practices are typically held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. The season matches are held on Saturday afternoons in Connecticut as well as Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island. NLCRFC is looking to win the upcoming 2018 NERFU Tournament in the spring as well as the 2018 regular season in the fall. Our club rests heavily on our values of physically tough yet clean play.

Essential functions:

- Teaching and player development.
- Communicate with captains on practice planning, practice execution, game strategy, and game management.
- Delegating administrative responsibilities to the captains.
- Monitoring players on individual skill and progression.

Knowledge/Skills/Abilities:

- Strong knowledge of the sport of men's rugby
- Exceptional leadership and strong organizational skills.
- The ability to represent the philosophy and educational goals of New London Rugby.
- Ability to work and attend scheduled practices matches.

Qualifications:

- Coaching and/or playing experience at the men's level.
- Current USA Level 100 and 200 certification or the ability obtain certifications within outlined period.

Please note:

This is a part-time position, with compensation based on training and experience. Interested candidates will be invited for an interview with a selection committee. Please respond to New London Rugby posting at stephen.early@live.com, with a brief description of your rugby and coaching background, relevant certifications, and contact information. All candidates will be considered

NLCRFC Contact Information
Stephen T. Early
stephen.early@live.com