

Rhode Island Rugby Football Foundation

PROVIDENCE RUGBY

WANTED: MEN'S COACH

The Providence Rugby men's team is seeking a qualified coach for the Fall 2017 season. Providence Men play in the competitive New England Union (NERFU). Player experience ranges from a season to 10+ years. Practices are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays evening and matches on Saturdays at fields in or near Providence (Pawtucket, Seekonk, East Providence).

Requirements:

- Ability to plan and attend two practices a week and Saturday matches.
- Ability to provide instruction and encouragement to players of all skill levels and positions.
- Willingness to provide feedback individually and collectively.
- A passion to nourish and evolve club pride and culture.
- Open communication with club officers and players in a fun, safe, and welcoming environment.
- USA Rugby certification or a willingness to obtain certification as soon as training is available.

Please note that this is for a part-time position with compensation based on training and experience.

Interested candidates will be invited for an interview with a selection committee.

Please respond to Providence Rugby at prfc.men@gmail.com, with a short description of your coaching or rugby background, relevant certifications, and contact information. All candidates will be considered.