

Hello Coaches,

The UMass Amherst Women's Rugby team is currently looking for a coach for the fall and spring seasons. We are a cohesive group of young women who enjoy training, spending time together and having some fun as well. It is a club sport and the position pays $25 an hour. We need a coach present for at least three practices per week. Practices are held usually in the evenings from 5-7pm. Games will take place on Saturdays and will require some travel. We play a lot of local New England schools such as BC, UCONN, BU, Tufts and Northeastern.

Our team is very young this year with most of our players having only been playing for a year or less. It will be important to focus on the core fundamentals. We also would want to focus more on fitness.
